

THE NEW LOOK OF QUICKLINE®

Discover and enjoy the new look for the popular advanced repair system Quickline coatings.

The fresh design brings modernity to the labels and will be immediately identifiable featuring a silver ›Q‹ letter embedded within a paint drop style design and eye-catching colours.

This new livery is intended to give a clean look on distributor shelves, making the product more appealing and to strengthen the connection with its customers. The visual reflects the high quality and technology of the Quickline brand's refinishing systems. All updated livery will feature this vibrant and dynamic image.
